QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

- 1) Reread Luke 12:13-21. What does covet mean? What does greed mean? Have you ever found yourself coveting something that someone else has? Where in your life have you uncovered greed creeping in?
- 2) Why does Jesus warn us about being aware of any kind of greed or covetousness in our lives?
- 3) When was a time in your life when you struggled with finding your identity in what you have? Why is this wrong?
- 4) How can you find the balance between saving for your future and being generous towards God?
- 5) What is Jesus wanting to teach us through this passage?
