QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

- Think back over the course of your life—what were your strongest relationships and how did they influence you as you became an adult?
- Think about the relationships you have right now. Are they a positive influence over your life? Do they encourage your relationship with God? Do they encourage you to be healthy physically, spiritually and emotionally?
- If you have children, what are you doing to influence your child's relationships outside the home? Do you know their friends? Are you teaching them to be a good friend?
- If your children picked their friends the way you pick your own friends, would you like the people they are hanging around with?
- What will you do this week to enhance the relationship you have with your kids?
